

I AM AGAIN

I went over the top tryin' to find what makes me drink myself, out of my mind cash don't count, you behave insane, powders up your nose or, in the vein, watchin' girls removing underwear whoever, however, whatever gets you there, I've been busy, tryin' to survive, shake things up, one more time

I AM AGAIN . . . I AM, I AM, I AM
HERE, I AM AGAIN . . . HERE I AM, HERE I AM
HERE, I AM AGAIN . . . HERE I AM, HERE I AM
I AM AGAIN . . . AM, I AM, I AM

All my problems went away when I said NO & since that day becoming bigger & stronger, can fight off whatever, whatever I want ta, Gonna choose my own way,
Say what I feel to say,
I don't mean to disappoint you, your so sad, cant handle it, fuck off too bad

Wasted years now I realise, I am, I am alive, mixed karma & love, I've observed, you get what you deserve, here, they don't fuck you round your down, they put you in the ground, (down down down)

No-no-one came to see, what became of me they said they'd be there now, that's the irony, all my so-called friends ran away,
It made me stronger day by day scorned, slagged, snubbed & slandered, when I was falling apart, I'm here to tell' em, face to face, (get fucked) (get fucked).

think you'd get rid of me, no no not that easily,
I will always be, I am again I am again.
